We're looking after your safety with the help of security

At Shosholozla Meyl, we put your safety first. We urge everyone to remain patient and to avoid getting involved with people who become irritable or even violent. To make sure that incidents do not occur, we have taken additional security measures and have deployed SAPS members to keep an eye on things.

Extra trains for passengers

From 28 March 2013 - 01 April 2013, we'll be adding 18 extra trains to service most of the main lines. This will help to accommodate the thousands of people that will be going away over the weekend and returning afterwards. The extra trains will help a lot but we still urge all our Shosholozla Meyl customers to book early.
